Welcome to Lodi Parks & Recreation!

Welcome to the 2004 edition of our Parks & Recreation Activity Guide in which many of our program offerings are listed. We hope that you will consider participating in one of our many sports and leisure activities.

Since our last publication, some major changes have occurred in the Lodi Parks and Recreation Department. Director Roger Baltz has left the employ of the City of Lodi for his former home in Florida. Roger's accomplishments were many during his 2-1/2 year tenure in Lodi, and we will all miss his casual southern style and demeanor. We wish him well in his new endeavor.

In his stead, I have been asked to fill his shoes. That won't be easy since they were attached to a 6' 4" frame, but I'll do my best. I feel privileged and humbled to work with the staff of professionals who make up our Parks and Recreation Department. They are tremendously dedicated, and I am committed to serving both them and the residents of Lodi as we strive to enhance our programs and facilities.

Since the last tabloid, considerable progress has been made on many of our major projects. Construction drawings for the proposed Aquatics Center are 100% complete. Our Indoor Sports and Activity Center is at 90% of the conceptual design phase. Unfortunately, budget constraints may delay further maturation of these projects; but rest assured we are working hard to uncover creative financing schemes for them.

Additionally, grading for the development of the 49-acre DeBenedetti Park will be bid out this fall. And the "jewel" of Lodi's park system, Lodi Lake, has been further enhanced with the completion of the Lodi Lake Bicycle/Pedestrian Corridor – Phase II.

I hope you have enjoyed reading this tabloid and that its content has motivated you to take advantage of our many fine programs and facilities. We welcome your ideas and insights as we take yet another step into Lodi's world of recreation and leisure!

Tony Goehring

The City Council in Lodi consists of five members elected at-large by its voters. Council Members hold four-year terms. Elections for members of the Council are held in November of even-numbered years.

Each year the Mayor and Mayor Pro Tempore are chosen by the members of the City Council. The Mayor presides at Council meetings and acts as the ceremonial head of the City, and the Mayor Pro Tempore serves in the Mayor's absence.

The City Council establishes local laws, sets policies, approves programs, appropriates funds, supervises the operations of City government, and provides to the citizenry a better, more attractive, and healthier place in which to live.

The following scheduled meetings of the Lodi City Council, unless otherwise announced, are held in the Carnegie Forum, 305 West Pine Street, Lodi.

1. Informal Informational Meetings (Shirtsleeve Sessions)
Tuesday mornings at 7:00 a.m.
2. Regular City Council Meetings

The City Council may also hold special, joint, or adjourned meetings. By law, an agenda must be prepared for each Council meeting and posted in a place open to the public at least 72 hours in advance of the meeting (or 24 hours in the case of a special meeting).
